Inhalator Squad Acts to Save Baby's Life

An hour's work of an inhalator squad yesterday is credited with saving the life of Barbara Rector, eight month old daughter of Ensign and Mrs. Milton G. Rector, and granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Phibbs, 127 Hellman avenue, Cucamonga.

Asleep in a "zipper sheet," the little baby had turned and wriggled in such a manner that the covering tightened around her neck.

Mrs. Phibbs, caring for the child while the mother is on a short visit with the father at Seattle, frequently inspected the baby's crib. She arrived just in time to loosen the covering and to summon aid through the Upland police department. The local officials called the neighboring department's inhalator crew. The emergency crew worked over the little body for an hour.

Mrs. Rector, the former Harriet Phibbs, left the child in the care of the grandmother, while she went north to visit Ensign Rector who recently arrived at Seattle from sea duty.

The baby's condition was reported as satisfactory today at the San Antonio Community hospital.

1945 License Plates Must Be On Cars —Or Else!

How about your 1945 auto and truck license plates?

California highway patrolmen have orders today to halt all motor vehicles not bearing 1945 plates and drivers will be required to show evidence that the new plates have been applied for or accept a citation to court.

Orders to check on the plates and the applications were received yesterday by Captain Frank Freeman of the highway patrol. The orders were issued by E. Raymond Cato, patrol chief.

Memorial Day Is Lions' Theme

The current San Francisco conference for international organization was analyzed in the light of "Memorial Day" and views that were not too optimistic were expressed by the Rev. Clarence Reynolds when he spoke at the meeting of the Upland Lions club in the Upland Woman's clubhouse at noon yesterday.

A member of the club, Rev. Reynolds is pastor of the Presbyterian church. Earl Johnson introduced the speaker and President C. Ernest Olson presided.

Rev. Reynolds traced the beginnings of Memorial day observance from the time of the civil war between the states. As new wars been added to U. S. history, the day has taken on a new significance, he said. Honor is now paid to all fallen soldiers of all the wars that the United States has participated in throughout the world. American dead lie buried in almost every country.

"It is a good sign when the living show their gratitude to men who have died for freedom's cause," the speaker said. He expressed hope that the nations of the world would soon come to a workable plan for peace, because men are still dying in war with the hope that "they shall not have died in vain."

Ernest H. Gibson gave a "birthday talk," and told of going to work at a bank for experience only, without any pay. Later, however, he was advanced to manager of a branch bank for his employers and subsequently became cashier of the First National bank of Santa Maria. He also engaged in farming as a sideline and later invested in citrus property here and in Imperial valley.

Highlight of the parade up Euclid was the hundreds of soldiers from the Ontario airfield.

Leading the march were cars with Upland and Ontario city officials.

In the procession were cars with Upland and Ontario city officials. Many patriotic organizations were represented in the procession, including the Ontario and Upland posts American Legion; Daughters of Union Veterans and the auxiliary of the Sons of Union Veterans, Veterans of Foreign Wars, Boy Scouts, I.O.O.F.

Other organizations having a part in the program and the day's observance were W.R.C., Podrasnik camp, Sons of Union Veterans; John Dillon camp, United Spanish War Veterans; Ontario camp, Disabled American Veterans; Ontario Squadron Sons of the American Legion; San Antonio chapter, D.A.R. and the Navy Mothers club.

14 Houses Built Here This Year

Permits were issued during the first five monthts of 1945 for the construction of 14 new houses in Upland, Building Inspector Richard Derby reported today. These and other permits have made a building permit total since January 1 of $69,063.34. One hundred and twelve permits have been issued during the year.

May's building activity has been brisk, with 27 permits being issued to make a total of $21,343 in building valuation started here during the month. Of the May permits, four were for construction of new residences.

The 1945 total is far ahead of the building record for the first five months in 1944.

Mrs. J. R. McKinnie, 804 San Ysidro drive, Los Olivos, underwent minor surgery yesterday at San Antonio Community hospital.

Prizes Awarded In Tree Counting Contest Here

Missing the exact count of trees shown on the Eastside park design by only 10, Miss Gloria Bowman, 604 Third avenue, won first place in Upland's tree-counting contest and she will be officially awarded the $25 as first prize late this afternoon.

The exact count is 1,115 trees while the fifth grader at the Elementary school guessed 1,125.

Second and third place wnners entered the same figure—1,100, but since Rudy Alonzo, 511 G street, submitted his estimate earlier he was awarded second prize money of $10. Raymond Warren, who resides at the lower San Antonio canyon guard station, was given $5 award for third prize.

The contest was sponsored by the Upland Coordinating council as a project to stimulate interest in the city's park on San Bernardino road just east of the San Antonio Community hospital. Some time ago there was prepared a plot of the proposed improvements showing roadways, trees, shrubbery and sites for possible improvements.

The contest was based on the number of trees indicated in the prepared design. All Upland school children were privileged to enter, each contestant being expected to carefully study the park plan and to carefully count the number of trees shown.

Mrs. Donald F. McKean was chairman of the committee. Judges were Harold W. Cook, Mrs. Poli Sanchez and Mrs. Theo Davis. The judges carefully checked the entries and conferred with Richard Derby, building inspector, who prepared the park plot.

While the plot does not accurately represent the number of trees actually set out, the contest was planned to focus attention of the students on the city's future park center.

At the outset much interest was shown in the students and the park plot, exhibited at the Upland chamber of commerce office, was the center of considerable attention.

Incidentally all the winners are in the fifth grade in the Elementary school building. Since their entries were placed at different times, assurance is given that the students were not together at the time the park plot was checked by them.

Nearly 300 school children participated in the contest, according to Mrs. McKean.

Rent Office To Take Inventory of Houses Being Served

The area rent office at 531 E street, San Bernardino, will be closed on June 1, 2, and 4, for the purpose of taking inventory of registrations.

Rent control has been effective in San Bernardino county since September 1, 1942, and the considerable volume of registrations, petitions and incidental proceedings requires that an apprisal be made at this time to determine the number of dwelling units which are being administered by this office.

Such inventory has been ordered by the national office on a nationwide scale and will serve to provide a criteria for evaluating the workload, as well as personnel requirements. An accurate count of registrations is necessary in order that duplications may be eliminated and files arranged for statistical breakdowns, as well as a survey of the work actually accomplished.

Ontario Names Three On Inter-City Committee

Completing the inter-city committee to discuss mutual Upland-Ontario problems, three Ontario city planning commissioner members have been named. These are Mrs. S. S. Howell, Albert F. Holmer and Neal D. Smith.

They will work with W. W. Mather, Richard G. Manley and Otto Christensen, members of the Upland planning commission.

The two commissions recently held a joint meeting in Upland to discuss mutual problems. The two committees will confer from time to time on matters affecting both communities.

Girl Suffers Severe Cuts On Face From Power Saw

An unusually cautious father, using a hand circular saw, electrically operated, and a curious child, were the principals in a tragic accident late yesterday afternoon.

Robert P. Long, sawing lumber for a new garage and residence he is building on the rear of his home at 441 Campus avenue, was busy at his work, pushing the saw forward and backward as the various pieces of lumber were cut.

Judy Long, three-year-old daughter, always interested in watching her father, came up from behind to see the fast motor and what it did. As her father finished one cut he withdrew the saw, but unknown to him his little daughter was too close.

The girl suffered the loss of her left ear and a deep gash on the side of her face. Numerous stitches were required to tie up the wounds.

She is resting easily at the Green Memorial hospital, but her condition is reported as serious.

Lt. Ben Warmer Tops List of Fliers With 221 "Points" points to his credit in qualifying for discharge from the armed forces, but he cannot discard the uniform because his services are termed "essential."

That is the word to his parents, Judge and Mrs. Ben Warmer.

As far as is known, the former Chaffey student and hero of a thrilling battle over Italy, has more points than any other person in the air corps.

The Clipper, fourth air force newspaper, reports on Lt. Warmer's service as follows:

"He has 21 Air Medals which alone give him 105 points; he had been in the army 37 months, 9 of them overseas, giving him another 46 points; he has six battle stars worth 30 points and has been awarded unit citations five times for another 25 digits; also adorning his chest are the Purple Heart, the Distinguished Service Cross, the Distinguished Flying Cross, adding 15 to his credit.

"The total equals 221 and there is only one catch—Ben went to Officer's Candidate school a few months back and was graduated as a second lieutenant. Now he's classified as essential to the army. If he still was an enlisted man he probably would be getting out."

Lt. Warmer is presently assigned to the bombardment division headquarters of the Fourth Air Force at San Francisco.

Largest Class To Graduate Here

With nearly 100 boys and girls in the group, the largest class ever to be graduated by the Upland junior high school will receive their diplomas June 13 as the first of three commencement programs to be held in the community.

The 1945 class includes about 20 students more than the 1944 group of graduates. LeRoy Graham, president of the class, will preside at the commencement program to be held in the Elementary school auditorium. He will announce the class gift and present the group to Harold W. Cook, school superintendent. Diplomas will be presented to the graduates by D. E. Palmer, who is retiring from the Chaffey board of education. Incidentally, it will be his privilege to present a diploma to his daughter, Peggy, a member of the class.

Five student speakers will appear on the program, as well as the junior high orchestra and the girls' choir. Student speakers will discuss the theme: "Privileges and Responsibilities of American Citizenship." The five speakers will be Darrel Mayberry, Abbott Paine, Marva Schor, Don Mueller and Margaret Salzman.

Commencement week in the Chaffey district will open with the baccalaureate service in the Civic auditorium June 10. Following the local graduation service on Wednesday of that week will be the high school commencement on Thursday and the college graduation exercises on Friday.

$476,600 Is Bond Purchase Total

Seventy-six thousand dollars in excess of the quota, Upland's bond purchases in the seventh war bond drive today totals $476,600.

Of this sum about $55,000 represent investments from corporations and the rest of the total is the result of investments by individuals, according to the figures reported by Marion Grothe, sales director.

The campaign is not officially over and the total is expected to be considerably higher when the drive is at an end.

Bond purchases may be made at the banks or at the postoffice.

While gratified over exceeding the quota, those leading the campaign here expressed disappointment over the number of persons who have made investments.

The purchase of "E" bonds during the campaign has been low and the appeal today especially stressed the need for more persons to participate in the campaign.

"Of course, we are highly pleased with the results," said John W. Shepperson, general chairman. "It is fortunate we have many people who buy large sums of bonds, but we are disappointed that more persons have not bought bonds. We need more purchasers of "E" bonds."

Encouragement Given in City's Building Request

Officials of the National Housing Authority have replied to the Upland chamber of commerce request for consideration of an allotment of building priorities for this area.

"We are presently considering an H-2 program for Upland," J. Emery Sargent, secretary, was advised today. Additional information is sought by the officials.

Mr. Sargent recently applied to the NHA for building priorities and the letter, giving encouraging reply, was received.

The H-2 program, when allocated, enables any resident in the area receiving the priorities, to build any structure with a maximum investment of $7,000, it was explained. Civic officials are making every possible effort to get favorable action from the national agency and when this comes the general public will be privileged to apply for one of the permits assigned this area, it is explained.

They reported that their ship, a 215-ton destroyer, sank about 2000 yards off the southwest coast of Okinawa—the first American ship destroyed in that operation.

Previously, the Halligan had participated in campaigns in the Marshalls, Saipan, Leyte Gulf, Lingayen Gulf and Iwo Jima.

Other survivors aboard the transport were from the destroyers Colhoun, Dickerson and Emmons and from several smaller type vessels also sunk in the Okinawa campaign.

Pays Dues To Lodge Here 35 Years; Visits "Brothers"

He has had membership in the lodge since 1906 and continued paying dues yearly after leaving this community in 1909.

A resident of Alpine, San Diego county, he came to Upland in an immigrant train in 1897 and lived here 12 years.

His parents, he said, planted the last vacant land on Euclid avenue, at the southeast corner of Seventeenth street, 46 years ago, and it is now the youngest grove on Euclid avenue north of Ontario.

Mr. Galloway for many years had a 320-acre ranch, but recently sold most of it, retaining 15 acres. The visit to Upland Tuesday was his first in four years, he stated.

Postoffice Adds Extra Help

Indicative of increased business and a larger amount of mail going through the office, another man has been added to the staff of the Upland post office.

Lloyd G. Carpenter began his duties today as substitute carrier and mail clerk. He transferred here from the San Diego post office. His wife and three teen-age sons will join him as soon as living accomodations are available.

As the result of the increased business, the Upland office will attain "first class" rating a month hence. Additional help is required to handle the mail volume and Mr. Carpenter joins the force to enable the local office to maintain its efficiency in handling incoming and outgoing mail.

Residence Moved To Clear Site for New Upland Theater

The residence at 177 Third avenue was moved away today.

The property, recently purchased by the Western Amusement Co. as a site for the new Upland theater, was thus cleared for construction of the proposed improvement. Previously the two-story residence, 191 Third avenue, was torn down.

Actual construction of the theater building is scheduled to be started just as soon as an application for priorities is approved by the War Production Board. Ben Adams, theater manager, is hopeful of receiving word of this approval within a short time.

Removal of the residence today clears all the site for the theater that will have its entrance at the corner of East Ninth street and Third avenue. The theater property will extend south of Ninth for some distance as well as more than 100 feet west of Third avenue on Ninth.

An office for Dr. Owen M. Sherrick will join the theater building on the west. Dr. Sherrick has received WPB approval for his structure and actual construction is scheduled to be started in the near future.

Board of Review Named to Act In Police Case

A "board of review" was appointed at a special meeting of the Upland city council yesterday afternoon to act on the first case to develop since the adoption of a merit system for municipal employes. The merit system has been in effect more than a year.

On the board are E. Birch Harrison, who was named chairman; the Rev. C. E. Reynolds, and W. N. "Bill" Williamson.

Purpose of the board is to review cases and grievances involving employes.

Clarence Skvor, a former member of the Upland police department, was relieved of his duties a few weeks ago. He has asked for a public hearing. Through his attorney a request for a public hearing was made on May 23. In accordance with the merit system regulations he is entitled to a public hearing within 20 days.

Police Chief Eugene L. Mueller relieved Officer Skvor of his duties for "insubordination".

Advised of the request for a public hearing, the councilmen met to select three persons to decide on the merits of this case—and all other cases that might come before the board of review. In accordance with the local act, similar to the civil service system, members of the board will determine by lot when their terms will expire. One member's term will expire in two years, another in four years, and the third in six years.

It is designed to establish examinations for applicants to various positions in the municipal system.

Since its adoption early in 1944, this is the first time any feature of the merit system has been used to provide for selection of employes on their merits for the positions and to give them security in their jobs and to prohibit them from being discharged except for inefficiency or other specified reasons.

Mr. Harrison, the designated chairman, is president of the Upland Rotary club, member of the Upland board of education, a director of the chamber of commerce and a citrus grower.

Rev. Reynolds is minister of the Upland Presbyterian church.

Mr. Williamson is a long-time Upland resident, interested in various activities here, is a member of the Upland police reserve and a citrus grower. He resides on Mountain avenue at Twenty-first street and for years operated a garage at that location.

A lot, on which is to be built a boys' dormitory, was given by C. S. Musser in honor of the memory of his late father, John Musser. The building lot is on the south side of Alpine street just west of San Antonio avenue.

Gifts to the college library have come from several local residents as well as friends of the institution throughout the nation. One cash donation of $100 from Rev. and Mrs. Roy H. Wenger was reported. Rev. Donald Stewart, former Presbyterian church pastor, made a valuable contribution to the library.

Anne Daniels, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Chris Daniels of Canyon City, Oregon, is a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Almquist, 921 East G street, Ontario. Mrs. Almquist has just returned from a week's visit with Mr. and Mrs. Daniels, and Anne accompanied her home. How Much of the War-time Government Framework Must Be Retained?

If history repeats itself, as it usually does, some of the fundamental economic and political changes which have occurred in the United States during World War II undoubtedly will become permanent fixtures in the American way of life, just as World War I left its indelible stamp on the nation.

Federal taxes, for example, while they may be whittled down somewhat from their present all-time high rates, never will drop back to pre-war levels, in the opinion of most thoughtful observers.

Not only will the country be left with a colossal war debt, which must be paid in taxes, but the whole structure of government has grown to such gigantic proportions in recent years that it will take a titanic battle on the part of the taxpayers to halt the expansion trend and achieve even moderate reductions in governmental costs.

Wage gains achieved by workers during the war, when the demand for labor exceeded the supply, will be retained, at least in large part, after the war, according to the consensus of opinion among business, farm and industrial leaders. While there will be some cut backs, pay scales are not expected to drop back to pre-war averages, even if there should be considerable unemployment.

Conversely, business profits probably will not average as high in post-war years as during the pre-war period, due to two factors—high corporate taxes and rigid governmental limitations on earnings. Whether business, under such conditions, will be able in the future, as it has in the past, to store up a reservoir of funds to carry it during arid economic cycles is perhaps the biggest question mark confronting the private enterprise system.

While the worker, as a result of war gains, is expected to take home more dollars to his wife and family than in former years, the very fact that wages are high undoubtedly will keep prices for food, clothing and other necessities at a fairly high level.

Ralph H. Taylor, secretary of the Agricultural Council of California, composed of the state's major farm cooperatives, turned the spotlight on this problem recently when he declared: "Farmers want the rest of the country to continue to enjoy good times when the war ends, but farmers certainly cannot permit a labor-industrial-government policy of cheap food to take root, if present high wage standards are to be maintained in the cities. That would be the road to ruin for agriculture."

Power companies and railroads have been able to keep rates down, even with skyrocketing tax and labor costs, but they have done it by constantly stepping up their volume of sales and reducing their unit costs.—Clem Whitaker.

PADUA HILLS

"Musica," described as a gay story of colorful Mexico, will be the new production of the Mexican Players, to have a festive opening on June 6, at the Padua Hills theatre.

"Panduro's Dream," the current offering at the scenic foothill playhouse, will close its engagement with Saturday's performances, to make room for the new play.

"Musica" tells a whimsical story of the quest of a professor of music for a violinist to play in his orchestra, and how his lovely daughter solved papa's problem much to her own advantage.

Inmates of an Oklahoma prison held an athletic meet. Wall climbing was not included in the events.

William Georgiades, who will be a college junior next year, has been elected student body president for the coming year.

Among the new teachers at the college next fall will be Elam Dohner, who will be dean of boys and religious director and academy instructor. Mrs. Elam Dohner will serve as dean of women and director of the dining room and ninth grade English teacher.

A new department of industrial arts will be established with Amos Buckwalter as the head. He will teach engine mechanics, industrial drawing and allied subjects.

Norman Wingert will be a new teacher in the academy. He is a former president of Jabbok Bible school and has wide experience as a teacher and as a social service worker.

Miss Alma Cassel, dean, revealed today that the outlook for next year is the brightest in the institution's history. Accommodations will be taxed as indicated by the large number of student applications and the outlook for a major increase in enrollment.

EVERY RESIDENT IS ELIGIBLE

Every family in Upland, Alta Loma, Cucamonga, and Etiwanda is included in the Upland Merchants' Dividend Day. A directory has been especially compiled by The Upland News. This directory includes every house address in these communities—Upland, the outlying district, and the three communities east of Upland.

A page number and line number are selected in a drawing to determine where the "Dividend Day Man" will call with the award. Thus, an address is selected from the directory. If the family receiving the call qualifies by having sales slips, the award is presented. The call is made at 6 p. m. every Monday. The sales slips must be dated Saturday.

The dividend sales do not have to be for cash, a "charged" sales slip being acceptable. In all fairness, however, a sales slip for payment on account cannot be eligible for use on dividend day.

(COPYRIGHTED JOE DOWNEY)

To be eligible to receive all of the jack-pot, your total purchases from two or more stores may be for

ONLY $1.00

All of jack-pot may be won if person has two or more sales slips from two or more stores with total purchases over $1.00.
$5 if person selected has one sales slip.
$10 if person selected has two or more sales slips showing total purchases under $1.00.
$1 if person selected has no sales slip.

Book With Upland Setting Placed On Sale Here

Local residents, especially those who knew Louise Maxwell as a local student and as a Pomona college girl, will be interested in "Party Line," a novel with an Upland setting.

The book is on sale at the Harnish Dry Goods Co. Miss Lilian Harnish, store proprietor, expressed the belief she could recognize some local people mentioned through descriptions used by the author.

Publishers of the book have printed this about the author: "Louise Baker's childhood was spent in the small California town which is the setting for Party Line. Later she graduated from Pomona college and subsequently took a year of graduate work at Columbia university."

The author is the niece of Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Maxwell of Upland.

Get Maximum Service from Your Telephone Directory

MAKE REGULAR USE OF THE CLASSIFIED SECTION

Your Telephone Directory is more than just an alphabetical listing of local telephone subscribers. It can serve you as a valuable aid in many other ways. You can make it save you time and help you with your shopping. It can save steps and gasoline for you when you are seeking some special article or some specialized service. When you're in a hurry, it can acquaint you with a nearby dealer from whom you can obtain the goods or services you desire most quickly.

HOW TO USE THE CLASSIFIED SECTION

In the Classified Section of your Telephone Directory, you will find the various business firms and professional people of the community, each listed under a proper heading as "Accountants, Architects, Attorneys", and so on.

Under each of these headings is an alphabetical list of all firms and individuals engaged in that particular business or profession, together with their addresses and telephone numbers.

Suppose, for example, that you want a leaking faucet repaired. Turn to the Classified Section of your Telephone Directory. Under the heading "Plumbing Business", you will find a full list of plumbing firms from which to choose. Chances are there will be one in or near your own neighborhood. You'll find it just as simple and just as convenient whatever your needs may be—garments or rugs to be cleaned, an electrical gadget to be repaired, or for a new milkman.

Surveys show that four out of every five telephone subscribers do make such use of the Classified Sections of their Telephone Directories. If you haven't already acquired this good habit, why not try it next time you have some special merchandise or service need to be filled?

BUSINESS MEN: A NEW TELEPHONE DIRECTORY WILL BE PUBLISHED SOON

Whether your business is large or small, take full advantage of your telephone service by having your name listed in the Classified Section of the Telephone Directory under ALL the headings pertaining to the goods and services you offer. Check the listings under which your name now appears and call our Business Office for additional listings.

Park Plans for Future Depicted By Mrs. Kipp

(The following is the second in a series of articles on Upland's "Eastside" park written by Mrs. A. R. Kipp. While the trees have been set out, no definite plans have been made for buildings, other than placing them on a map as future possibilities.)

Have you seen the proposed plan for Upland's Eastside park?

Did you notice the very attractive arrangement for adequate parking facilities?

On a day in the future, let us say, you decide to spend a holiday at the park—you and your family, with a picnic lunch.

If you approach from the west on Arrow highway, and continue to the two center driveways, you will face an auditorium perhaps, on the left and right of the auditorium respectively. In balanced position, are two smaller buildings, the left a gymnasium, the right a club house for the use of the public, as are all the facilities of the park. These three buildings furnish refuge in case a sudden turn in weather spoils out door plans.

The primary purpose of the buildings is to make recreational possibilities through the twelve months.

You park your car and walk around the auditorium. You find yourself at one end of an imposing plaza, extending straight ahead of you to Foothill boulevard.

It is broad with a driveway on each side, grass esplanade in the center, the entire picture framed on the outer sides of the drive by live oaks.

At the north end your eye is caught by the reflection of water. It comes from a swimming pool and wading pool.

There is a driveway crossing the plaza in front of the auditorium. It being lunch time you go to the left, where in clumps of trees and shrubbery are barbecue facilities, should that be your wish.

Keeping to the west of the plaza, crossing the east-west drive toward the north, are more picnic grounds. Here is an extensive meadow, a tumbling place for the children and impromptu games for any age.

Beyond the meadow, toward and extending to the landscaping at Foothill boulevard, are tennis courts, basket-ball, volley ball and hand-ball facilities.

Should you go up the right or east side of the plaza from the auditorium, you will come to an outdoor theatre, presenting all sorts of possibilities for teen-age plays, community Little Theatre groups, community sings, May Day parties, local forum discussions, Town Hall meetings in the open, where Upland may be either serious or frivolous.

Having tried out the seats in the amphitheater, you continue on toward Foothill. You hear some metallic sounds just ahead. Urged on by curiosity, you find groups pitching horseshoes, playing shuffle board and croque—all in expertly laid out locations.

But further on you have for sometime been hearing cheering and plenty of noise, so on you go.

Well, here it is, a baseball diamond and grand stand, with a game in full swing. Extra parking facilities have been placed around the baseball grounds, so a crowd may come and go from this part of the park and not disturb groups or individuals in other parts of the grounds.

By now you have walked up more appetite, so you drop down on the grass by the nearest clump of shrubbery, and among you are able to finish up what was left in your baskets from dinner.

You decide to saunter back toward your car down the esplanade itself. The moon is coming up and throwing intriguing shadows across the rolled out carpet of green.

Then music seeps through the trees. You stop to listen and find there is a band concert tonight. The music is coming from the outdoor theater.

The children beg to stay a little longer, so you all linger to enjoy.

Presently with bodies healthily tired, minds refreshed and spirits soothed, you return home, better able to pick up the demands of tomorrow.

A dream—you say!—maybe. But why not dream pretty dreams? We've had nothing but night-mares so long!

This new world we hope for—that young America is dying for—will be only the composite of mens' dreams. Everything man has created, had to be first an idea. As a foundation for a better new world, shall we dream beautiful dreams or dark ones?

There is a criterian for the rightness of any endeavor or action—"Does it benefit everyone whom it touches." Does this dream pass that test?

How about it—come on let's dream!

Postoffice Resumes Limited Mailing To Norway, France

Indicative of a gradual return to peacetime ways of the long embattled nations of Europe, Upland Postmaster P. Brady today announced restricted resumption of mail service to two of its countries.

Effective May 17, the postoffice resumed mailing of non-illustrated post cards to Norway, and they may be used for business as well as personal or family matters. The rate is three cents each. Due to unsettled conditions, however, mail for certain areas of Norway will be somewhat delayed in delivery. Parcel post service is not available at this time.

Effective June 1, Mr. Brady reports, ordinary parcel post service will be resumed to France. Such parcel post packages are limited to one a week and their weight is limited to 11 pounds with a length of 18 inches and a combined length and girth of not more than 42 inches. The parcel post rate to France is 14 cents a pound or fraction.

Tire Allotments Nearly Trebled

Good news came yesterday to San Bernardino County automobile owners, many whose cars are badly in need of new rubber, when the district OPA office in Los Angeles announced that the county's June quota for grade one passenger automobile tires will be 6,050 compared with 2,335 for May.

Coming with the recent announcement of an increase in gas allotment when the new "A" tickets come into use this month, the order released yesterday for an increase in tires came as cheering news.

The total for the entire Los Angeles OPA district, of which San Bernardino county is a part, will be upped 77,598 tires over the May allotment.

A total of 110,506 grade one tires will be available to motorists of the district during June, according to Frank L. Ryan, OPA rationing representative. The May tire allotment for the district was but 32,908, Mr. Ryan pointed out.

Sponsors for the remainder of the month are Ontario Lions club, June 8; Upland Masonic club, June 15; Cucamonga Service club, June 22; and Ontario Kiwanis club, June 29.

U. S. HAS COFFEE PLANT IN MARSEILLES, FRANCE

Uncle Sam has gone into the coffee business with his own roasting plant in Marseilles, France. Run by an army captain and four enlisted men, the coffee plant is operated under a reverse lend-lease contract and turns out 12,000 pounds of coffee a day for troops in southern France.

Memorial Event Unites Many

Hundreds of persons united late Wednesday for the community's observance of Memorial day.

The long parade up Euclid avenue, Ontario, to the Chaffey campus was viewed by a throng, and the patriotic program in the Civic auditorium climaxed a day dedicated to the memory of the heroic dead.

Overcast skies dimmed the brightness of the day like clouds of smoke from the battles that still rage in the Pacific. The late afternoon sunlight was fading as the Chaffey band headed the procession northward from Euclid avenue and D street. Hundreds of soldiers from the Ontario army air field were representatives of today's far-flung servicemen while men of other wars, women auxiliaries of patriotic organizations, Boy Scouts and Cub Scouts and others marched in the colorful procession.

An audience that partially filled the large auditorium heard Captain Charles V. Ellis, chaplain at the Corona Naval hospital, assert that "We Will Keep Faith." This veteran of 32 years service in the navy asked for fulfillment of the ideals for which men and women have given their lives for their country.

Forming a background as he spoke were many American flags, banners and colors of the various patriotic organizations in the community. Color bearers had placed the flags in a circular border back of the speakers' row on the stage.

Pledge to the flag was lead by two nurses from the Corona naval hospital and the invocation was delivered by the Rev. Merrill Jensen. S. Earl Blakeslee lead in community singing of the national anthem, "America," "Onward Christian Soldiers" and "God Bless America."

Miss Barbara Del Eckford was the soloist in "Say a Prayer for the Boys Over There."

Lt. Col. Herschel R. Griffin, who was master of ceremonies, conducted a brief "In Memoriam" following Captain Ellis' address. Sgt. Bruno Ketola recited "The American Creed."

Earlier in the day, Memorial services were held at Bellevue cemetery to honor the memory of all persons who rest there. The services were sponsored by the Ontario Cemetery association and were under the direction of Mrs. Ray R. Delahauer. The Beulah college octet appeared in selections.

Jeannette Walkinshaw, trumpeter, appeared in two solos, and the Rev. John Dennis delivered a brief

SPC 2-C and Mrs. Chester M. Frost, 124 East Foothill boulevard, Cucamonga, are the parents of a baby son, born early Wednesday morning.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Joe Vasquez of Chino Wednesday afternoon.

Couple Fined in Prisoners' Case

Charged with obstructing the work of a deputy coroner, Mr. and Mrs. John Merlo of Cucamonga were fined $200 in San Bernardino justice court. Mr. Merlo was fined $150 and Mrs. Merlo $50. Each was given a six months suspended jail sentence.

One of a group of Italian prisoners of war who had allegedly visited their home recently was fatally struck soon after leaving their Foothill boulevard home.

They pleaded guilty, after they had been charged with picking up the injured prisoner, starting with him to the hospital, then leaving his body at the side of the road after the man had expired.

Mario Bucella, the prisoner, was struck by a hit-and-run driver when he sought to get a ride back to his camp.
